Heather Pierson is a New Hampshire based singer/songwriter, pianist, song leader, and performer with a passion for cultivating joy, both onstage and off. With a toe in each of the realms of New Orleans jazz, blues, vocal chants, instrumental piano, and folk, her multi-genre songwriting places her in a category all her own, one honed by decades of diligent practice and curious exploration. Whether solo, duo with her partner/bassist Shawn Nadeau, or as a trio with Craig Bryan on drums, Heather's live performances feature her bell-tone vocals, ease at the piano, and are infused with happiness, honest self-reflection, and a genuine desire to connect and share from the heart. In over twenty years on her own record label, Vessel Recordings, Heather has released fifteen albums and several singles of original music, reflecting her boundless creativity. A new album with Heather's trio, Back To The Light, is planned for a summer 2024 release. Other iterations of Heather include Heart Songs & Circle Songs, a community singing project with co-creator Bernice Martin; Peaceful Means, a new duo with Leah Boyd; and her rock quartet The Potboilers. Heather's life's work is to share her love of the language of music and her gratitude for life with others—one song, one heart, and one moment at a time.
